“Cheri has moved on” in the words of her husband Mitch. The cancer treatments she endured gave her many years here. Cheri Freeman was true theatre; a musician, singer, actor and director, doing whatever was needed so the show would go on. She put her energies to work at Woodland Theatre directing Guys and Dolls in 1997, Oliver in '98, Fall One Acts in '99, Paint Your Wagon in '02, Hello Dolly in '04 and her dream job, Mamma Mia in 2019. She brought some great characters to life, Lucy in You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, Yenta in Fiddler on the Roof and the Reverend Mother in Nunsense. From directing and singing in chorus, playing flute in Concert Band and many pit bands, Cheri shared her skills to create the performances we all craved. She took her skills to Chewelah's PACA, Park Ave Players, and the UCC church. Cheri is now entertaining the angels.
